Why we love HackerRank at Enel

- HackerRank is crucial to our screening and hiring process. We have been using HackerRank for years to evaluate candidates for our technology roles.
- Ease of technical testing from a recruiter standpoint, ability to reach massive amounts of candidates, and the added benefit of a user-friendly platform make HackerRank the go-to platform for tech hiring at Enel.
- Our candidates enjoy completing their assignments and assessments on HackerRank and this helps us stay candidate focussed and friendly.
