CUSTOMER STORY

servicenow

Design and implement a remote hiring process in two weeks

Partner with HackerRank to create a skills-first, end-to-end, remote hiring process

• 2-week transition from onsite to remote interviews
• 289 stakeholders trained and onboarded
• 800+ remote interviews conducted in less than 2 months

“We connected with HackerRank’s customer success team, and together, we worked on an end-to-end process. The process involved everything from training operations on assigning HackerRank seats, to implementing a really fantastic interview scheduling process around the tool, and then capturing the metrics and of course overall satisfaction.”

— Nancy DeLeon, Director, Global Talent Acquisition at ServiceNow
