Senior Director, Engineering

HackerRank helps us simplify decision making by recreating interviews on-demand with key-by-key playback the entire team can review. This helps our team get a sense of how candidates approach problem-solving, debugging, code quality and optimality.

Driving a hiring process

across the organization that is consistent and compliant is made easy with the HackerRank Developer Skills Platform.

HackerRank's assessments cover a wide spectrum of technology roles from programming fundamentals to real world application development. We've particularly had great success in hiring for Java and Ruby skills with HackerRank.
